

Peer Assessment

Name	Activity	Comments
James Tuling	Both members contributed same amount of effort in completing the assignment	James made extraordinary adjustments that made the code really surface. He helped solved some of my issues with backend and solve other problems that arises accordingly. All in all, it was a team effort that made the assignment come together quite neatly.
Prince Martinez	Both members contributed same amount of effort in completing the assignment	Prince pitched in with gathering info, finding images, and styling the CSS for our assignment. It really pulled everything together nicely. Couldn't have nailed it without him.
